

Concept Note
Child Development Society

Title of the Program/Activities	General Health Camp
Project	Health program
Department	Health & Nutrition
Responsible person	Sanjay Acharya, Radhika Shrestha
Designation	Lab Technician, Health Program In-charge
Time Frame	11/10/2017
Target Number	150

Key problems the program is addressing:

With the emerging health problems and knowledge deficiency, marginalized population especially mothers and children are facing hurdles to live a healthy life. With screening of diseases, treatment and counseling, the health camp can help in advancement in the quality of health and life of the local vulnerable people.

Target group:

Students from Balkumari Basic School, their parents, day care children and their mothers and local marginalized population from Faika, Kapan.

Main expected outcomes of the program:

- Screening will be done by pediatrician and doctor.
- Diseased patients will get good treatment and free medicines.
- Counseling services will be provided to the patients regarding care and maintenance of overall health.

Main objectives of the program:

- To spread awareness regarding common diseases, prevention and management.
- To distribute free medicines to genuinely diseased people.
- To provide individual counseling service.

Program process detail:

- The first phase of the program will be occupied by inauguration program.
- Screening will be done by pediatrician and doctor.
- Diagnosis and treatment facilities will be provided by the doctors.

- Distribution of medicines.
- Counseling service.

Follow up/ future plan of the event/ program:

- The patients shall be called for follow up services and to monitor the improvement in their conditions.

Submitted By:

Radhika Shrestha
Health Program In-charge
Date:

Recommended By:

Soniya Rijal
Program Manager
Date:

Approved By:

Kiran Thapa
Program Director
Date: